

2021 JOSEPH AND REBECCA MEYERHOFF ANNUAL LECTURE

“Working Through the Past”
German Efforts to Face Their Nazi History

Tuesday, February 23
4 pm PT | 7 pm ET

DR. SUSAN NEIMAN, Director
Einstein Forum, Potsdam, Germany

DR. RAY SUN, Associate Professor of History
Washington State University, Pullman, WA

PANEL DISCUSSION FOR UNIVERSITY CLASSES

Erased Histories
Memory and Memorializing Persecution in Germany and the Pacific Northwest

Tuesday, March 2
10 am PT | 1 pm ET

DR. BOB BAUMAN
Professor of History
Washington State University, Tri-Cities

DR. PHIL GRUEN
Associate Professor of Architecture
Washington State University, Pullman

MARGO HILL, JD
Assistant Professor
Eastern Washington University

DR. SUSAN NEIMAN
Philosopher and Director
Einstein Forum, Potsdam, Germany

Panelists will examine historical experiences of memorialization in Germany and the Pacific Northwest to spur conversations about persecution, racism, and forced forgetting. How does commemorating racially-motivated persecution and the attempted erasure of these traumatic events affect how we remember history?

STUDENT Q&A WITH DR. SUSAN NEIMAN

Wednesday, April 21
10 am PT | 1 pm ET

FOR MORE DETAILS AND TO CONNECT CAH.WSU.EDU/EVENTS-AND-PROGRAMMING

Top photo: Sergeant George A. Kaufman, an American soldier, replaces an “Adolf Hitler” street sign in Krefeld, Germany, with a handmade one, “Roosevelt Blvd,” March 1945. National Archives; Middle photo: Train delivering internees from Jerome Relocation Center to Heart Mountain Relocation Center, Wyoming. George and Frank C. Hirahara Collection, WSU MASC.

SPONSORED BY

Center for Arts and Humanities

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY

UNITED STATES
HOLOCAUST
MEMORIAL
MUSEUM

